

SHABBATON IN BOZEMAN JUNE 27-29 MUSIC AND RABBIS

Director of the Union for Reform Judaism (URJ), will lead the Saturday morning service and two workshops. Rabbi Mike Comins author of “A Wild Faith” will lead a TorahTrek on Saturday afternoon. Rabbi Chaim Bruk of Chabad and his wife Chavie will host a lunch on Sunday at their home in Bozeman.

The weekend will begin with a potluck hosted by Congregation Beth Shalom and a welcome by Dr. Jerry Walbaum, Northwest President of the URJ.

Bruce Barrett, the Mountain West Regional Director of AIPAC, the American Israeli Public Affairs Committee, is tentatively scheduled to speak at lunch on Saturday.

Neumiro Da Silva will lead song.

Please join us for this memorable weekend under the Big Sky.

Beth Shalom of Bozeman is hosting the annual gathering of Montana Jewry on June 27th, 28th and 29th. The Shabbaton of the Montana Association of Jewish Communities (MAJCO) offers an opportunity to meet Jews from around the State and is typically well attended. The Shabbaton will have options for kids and includes a dinner at Starky’s with music, rabbi-led services, workshops, and a TorahTrek.

Four Rabbis will take part in the weekend’s activities. Beth Shalom’s very own Rabbi Allen Secher will lead Erev Shabbat on Friday night. Rabbi David Fine, Regional

TorahTrek™ by Rabbi Mike Comins Saturday Afternoon

Rabbi Mike Comins, founder of TorahTrek and author of “A Wild Faith: Jewish Ways into Wilderness, Wilderness Ways into Judaism,” will lead a TorahTrek on Saturday afternoon.

Rabbi David Fine NW Director Union of Reform Judaism Saturday Afternoon

Rabbi Fine will lead two workshops (all Jewish affiliations welcome).

Possible topics include:
recruiting volunteers,
recruiting members,
finance, developing leaders,
URJ resources,
effective committee work in small congregations, and
Israel turns 60.

Contact Aaron Weissman (aaron@weissman.com) or Josh Burnim (joshburnim@gmail.com) to help organize and plan the Shabbaton, Neumiro Da Silva leads a song in Israel. Photo by Mimi Wolf. Over the past 10 years, Neumiro has developed a soulful style of prayer accompanied by classical guitar. He is well versed in traditional and modern melodies including many of his own. His spirituality inspires.

SHABBATON IN BOZEMAN JUNE 27-29

MUSIC AND RABBIS

REGISTRATION

Name(s): _____

Address _____

Phone(s) _____

Email(s) _____

Saturday Workshop Registration

_____ Rabbi David Fine workshop. Please circle two topic(s) you would like him to speak on: recruiting volunteers, recruiting members, finance, developing leaders, URJ resources, effective committee work in small congregations, and/or Israel turns 60. Or suggest your own topic(s):

_____ Rabbi Mike Comins Torah Trek

Fees (meals and events included)

Adults _____ @ $35 ea. = $ _____

Children _____ @ $15 ea. = $ _____

(under 5 free)

Students _____ @ $15 ea. = $ _____

TOTAL: $ _____

Donation:
For those who cannot afford the costs $ _____

Accommodations

Please contact Beth Shalom about accommodations. We will either host you in one of our homes or recommend a hotel or campground.

Please make checks payable to Congregation Beth Shalom and mail to:

Congregation Beth Shalom
2010 West Koch St.
Bozeman, MT 59718-4069
(406) 556-0528
cbshalom@qwestoffice.net
www.bethshalombozeman.org

Shabbaton Weekend Schedule

Friday

6 PM Potluck Dinner (Dairy)
Hosted by Beth Shalom
Dr. Jerry Waldbaum, President
NW Union of Reform Judaism
7.30 PM Service
Rabbi Allen Secher
Neumi Da Silva
Oneg Shabbat Deserts to follow

Saturday

(Breakfast on your own)
10 AM Services
Rabbi Fine
Neumi Da Silva
12 Lunch
Bruce Barret, Regional Director
Mountain West AIPAC (tent.)
Catered at Beth Shalom
1-6 PM Workshop Options
- 1 -
Rabbi David Fine, NW URJ
Two Workshops TBD
- 2 -
TorahTrek led by
Rabbi Mike Comins
Author of "A Wild Faith"

7 PM Dinner and Music
Starky's Authentic, a Jewish deli
9 PM Havdallah

Sunday

9 AM Hadassah meeting
10.30 MAJCO meeting
12.30 Lunch at Chabad House
Rabbi Chaim and Chavie Bruk